Santa Rosa Beach, FL — Destin-based TripShock.com announced today it was named to Inc. Magazine's "500/5000 Fastest Growing Private Companies in America" for the third year in a row. The company has landed at No. 359.

"We're both excited and humbled by this announcement," said TripShock Owner & CEO, Greg Fisher. "We love helping moms and dads choose from hundreds of unforgettable adventures on our site. This honor is a testament to the women and men who work the phones and maintain our listings, sending happy customers to all our partners."

The Inc. 500/5000 list is an annual compilation of private companies representing virtually every industry in the United States. TripShock was also selected in 2015 & 2016, and 2017 marks the second time the company is listed inside the Top 500.

Said Fisher, "Bringing customers to our tour and activity partners is one aspect of our commitment to them. As TripShock expands into markets such as Pigeon Forge, Myrtle Beach, and Tampa/St. Pete, we've made a promise to be their spokesperson for all matters relating to the tourism industry. We plan to continue representing them while at the same time helping their businesses grow."

TripShock.com is the Gulf Coast's largest outdoor activity and travel site. Founded in 2009 with one fishing charter offer, its inventory currently includes over 400 tours and excursions in NW Florida, Coastal Alabama, and New Orleans. The company's call center is 100% staffed with local Customer Service Representatives, and its real-time mobile booking capabilities make it a favorite among visitors and locals.
